AgriSense-STARS is supporting the improvement of smallholder farmer livelihoods and food security in Tanzania and Uganda by improving the information base for decision making. AgriSense partners develop solutions and build capacity for providing timely and transparent information on agriculture by leveraging technical innovations in remote sensing, smart phone and Internet technologies.